Clough Pike Baptist Church Privacy Policy

Privacy Statements

Thank you for visiting our web site. This privacy policy tells you how we use personal information collected at this site. Please read this privacy policy before using the site or submitting any personal information. By using the site, you are accepting the practices described in this privacy policy. These practices may be changed, but any changes will be posted, and changes will only apply to activities and information on a going forward, not retroactive basis. You are encouraged to review the privacy policy whenever you visit the site to make sure that you understand how any personal information you provide will be used.

Note: the privacy practices set forth in this privacy policy are for this web site only. If you link to other web sites, please review the privacy policies posted at those sites.

Collection of Information:

We collect personally identifiable information, like names, postal addresses, email addresses, etc., when voluntarily submitted by our visitors. The information you provide is used to fulfill your specific request. This information is only used to fulfill your specific request, unless you give us permission to use it in another manner, for example to add you to one of our mailing lists.

Cookie/Tracking Technology

The Site may use cookie and tracking technology depending on the features offered. Cookie and tracking technology are useful for gathering information such as browser type and operating system, tracking the number of visitors to the Site, and understanding how visitors use the Site. Cookies can also help customize the Site for visitors. Personal information cannot be collected via cookies and other tracking technology, however, if you previously provided personally identifiable information, cookies may be tied to such information. Aggregate cookie and tracking information may be shared with third parties.

Distribution of Information:

We may share information with governmental agencies or other companies assisting us in fraud prevention or investigation. We may do so when: (1) permitted or required by law; or, (2) trying to protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud or unauthorized transactions; or, (3) investigating fraud which has already taken place. The information is not provided to these companies for marketing purposes.

Commitment to Data Security:

Your personally identifiable information is kept secure. Only authorized employees, agents and contractors (who have agreed to keep information secure and confidential) have access to this information. All emails and newsletters from this site allow you to opt out of further mailings.

We reserve the right to make changes to this policy. Any changes to this policy will be posted.

Clough Pike Baptist Church Refund Policy

Refund Policy

The purpose of this policy is to define Clough Pike Baptist Church's refund policy for all contributions. Clough Pike Baptist Church is not legally required to refund any donor contributions. A charitable contribution is a gift, an irrevocable transfer of a donor's entire interest in the donated cash or property. Contributions must be irrevocable to qualify for a charitable deduction.

General Guidelines:

- Clough Pike Baptist Church is not required to return an undesignated or unrestricted gift. As such, requests for refunds relating to unrestricted gifts will be denied under most circumstances.
 - Exception A: Refund requests for duplicative or erroneous processing may be allowed.
 - Exception B: Refund requests of significant gifts (greater than $10,000) will be reviewed thoroughly and must be approved by the executive pastor of ministry support.
- In some instances, a refund of a designated or restricted gift may be allowed if the purpose for which the gift was given will not come to fruition. Clough Pike Baptist Church will contact the giver and ask for the restriction to be removed or if the giver would like his or her contribution returned.
 - For example, donations for mission trips may be refunded if a trip gets cancelled by Clough Pike Baptist Church and the donor requests a refund.
